

You can affect the destiny of a nation!

Sponsor a S.W.A.T. student! There are pastors, missionaries and leaders who have the desire to come and participate in the S.W.A.T. Boot Camps but are unable to attend due to lack of financial resources. This two-week Boot Camp specializes in dismantling the strongholds that hold back the kingdom of God in the lives of people in many areas of the world. This camp results in a team of warrior intercessors that are on call and available to go to even the remotest areas, particularly the Native Lands, to assist in tearing down the high places that keep people of all nations in bondage.

All applicants are reviewed by the co-founders prior to acceptance and come with their own ministerial recommendations. This is good ground to plant seed!

The cost of sponsoring one first-time student for one session of SWAT Training is $800.00 (for two weeks). This includes all meals, room and board, and teaching materials.

Tuition for subsequent sessions for returning students is $400.00 (for one week).
